Coffee Microcaps

For this week's Top-50 feature we present Mark Tobin, Founder of Coffee Microcaps. Mark has been "passionate about finding 'undiscovered' microcap stocks ever since he began his career as an equity analyst in Sydney. Working at Sydney based fund manager Wilson Asset Management, a small and microcap specialist manager, he was part of an investment team that was dedicated to finding undervalued small and microcap growth companies. Ever since that first exposure to microcap stocks, Mark has been hooked on uncovering these hidden gems and following their story and evolution." As a result, Mark launched his Coffee Microcaps Weekly Newsletter subscription in 2020 as an educational experience, "sharing his views on ASX microcaps stocks and microcap investing. The underlying purpose of the weekly newsletter subscription service, the in-person conferences, and the webinar events are to raise the profile of ASX-listed microcap companies and microcap equities as an asset class as a whole in Australia." Mark believes that both ASX microcap companies and microcap investors are currently under-served by actors in the current market structure. With Coffee Microcaps, his goal is to create a quality, tangible microcap investing community which solves this problem and creates value for all parties. We encourage you to subscribe via the Substack Platform.
